

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, December 6. 1705.

London, November 6.

Yesterday arriv'd from Holland the Mail of Friday last.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated December 10.

Milan, November 25.

THE Overflowing of the Po and other Rivers in the Provinces and Districts of Mantua, Ferrara, Bologna, Parma, Cremona, Ravenna, Alexandria, and Tortona, has done incredible Damage, having laid the Country 200 Italian Miles in Circumference under Water, overwhelm'd several Villages, and drown'd 12000 Persons (so many we have already an Account of) and a vast number of Cattle. Nor is this Calamity yet at an End, the Water being very high still.

The last Advices from Italy, left the Duke of Vendôme's Army encamp'd the 27th of November, with their Left hard by Castiglione delle Stivere and their Right at Zenta; and Prince Eugene's Army encamp'd with their Right at Montechiaro and their Left within 2 Miles of Lonato: By which Situation the Imperialists have a free Communication with the Chiese and the Lake of Garda. General Staremberg arriv'd in the Imperial Army the 26th; some Advices say, Prince Eugene will leave the Command of it to him, and go to Vienna.

Letters from Turin, of the 18th of November say, that when General Staremberg took his Leave of the Duke of Savoy the 16th, his Royal Highness presented him with a Sword, a General's Staff, and a Cross, all enrich'd with Diamonds to a great Value.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated December 11.

Letters of the 1st of December from the Frontiers of Savoy, advise. That the Duke of Savoy's Troops in the Castle of Ivore, are already encreas'd to 1000 Men, and are headed by 2 Officers nam'd Arpin and Turin: 54 Camisars that were stop'd at Laufanna, and oblig'd to quit the Pais de Vaud, have pass'd the Lake of Geneva and join'd the Savoyards in Ivore. Monsieur de Valiere is march'd from Chamberi with 500 Men of the Militia of Dauphine, to endeavour to disperse them. He has with him 2 Field-pieces. He demanded 2 Regiments of Horse of Monsieur de la Fare, who commands the Troops that block up Montmeillan; but was refus'd, Monsieur de la Fare alledging he could not spare them from that Blockade. Monsieur de la Valiere has writ about it to the Court of France.

From the Harl. and Amst. Courants, dated Dec. 12.

Ratisbon, Nov. 30. The Bavarian Rebels having possess'd themselves of Vilshoven, and put a strong Garrison into it, interrupt the Passage of Vessels on the Danube and the Iser by that Place. The number of those Rebels is reported to exceed 20000, of which 3000 have formerly born Arms in regular Troops and have some experienc'd Officers among them. The Magistrates of Ratisbon make Preparations for the Defence of that Place till the Troops of the neighbouring Circles of whom they have desir'd Aid can come up to them. And the Diet have pass'd a Resolution for their Security, which Cardinal Lamberg the Emperor's chief Commissioner, has sent to the Emperor for his Approbation.

Ratisbon, December 3. Collonel Wend, in the Action he had with the Rebels at New-Ottingen the 27th of last Month, kill'd 500, and took 270 Prisoners; he has since caus'd many of those Prisoners to be broken on the Wheel, others to be hang'd, and some to be beheaded, to terrify others by their Example. The 26th ult. Braunau, Vilshoven, and Ugarsperg were taken by the Rebels, on what Terms is not known; but 'tis said they were repuls'd in 2 Assaults they made upon Braunau, and in a 3d Storm carried a Ravelin and won the Place. They are now before Scharding, from which Place great firing of Cannon is heard at Passau; but 'tis fear'd that the Garrison being weak it must surrender. The Rebels have warn'd the Town of Landshut to provide for 10000 Men that they design to quarter in it. We have Advice from Italy, that the Floods had sweep'd away a French Field-Hospital, and with it 1000 sick or wounded Men.

Frankfort, December 7. The Troops of the Circles of Swabia and Franconia, and part of the Wirtembergers, are marching to Bavaria.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated December 12.

Berlin, Dec. 5. The Duke of Marlborough having had 2 private Audiences of the King, and several Conferences with our Ministers, has renew'd the Treaty for 8000 Prussians to continue to serve under Prince Eugene another Year in the Pay of England and Holland; and his Majesty has promis'd that 3 Battalions and 2000 Recruits shall begin their March this Month for Italy. His Grace was presented at this Court with a Sword, the Hilt of which is set with Diamonds valued at 12000 Rixdollars; and the Earl of Sunderland with a Ring worth 3000 Rixdollars. They set out the 3d Instant for the Court of Hanover.

Hildesheim, December 8. The 6th in the Afternoon the Duke of Marlborough arriv'd at Hanover, and soon after had an Audience of the Elector in his Closer, where was the Electoral Prince likewise: His Grace went from them to make his Compliments to the Electress Dowager, who was accompanied by the Electoral Princess and attended by the principal Ladies of the Court. In the Evening a French Comedy was acted for the Entertainment of his Grace, and he was seated in Duke Ernestus Augustus's Box on the Right hand of that Duke; which Box being next to that of the Electress Dowager, his Grace had a great deal of Discourse with her. He sup'd with their Electoral Highnesses, and was lodg'd in a Palace fitted up for him, having 24 Grenadiers and 2 Officers for his Guard. His Grace designs to set out to morrow for Holland. For what we can learn, there is little Hopes left of an Accommodation with the Malecontents of Hungary, who are influenc'd by French Counsels: Count Berezeni one of the chief of those Malecontents has the Reputation of being well vers'd in political and military Affairs.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated December 10.

Amsterdam, Dec. 9. Here are Letters from Malaga, which say Intelligence was come thither that Alicant has declar'd for King Charles III, and that the number of those who are in Arms for him in the Kingdom of Valencia encreases daily. This News is the more credible, because former Letters from Alicant

Alicant advis'd, that things were in great Confusion there, and that it was expected there would be a general Insurrection of the Inhabitants of that Place against the House of Bourbon. We have a Report here, that an English Man of War has taken a French Ship in her Way home from the South Sea.

From the Paris Letter, dated December 7.

Paris, December 7. Letters from Toulon of the 28th of last Month advise, that for some Days Men had been hard at Work to fit out 5 Bomb Vessels, some Fireships, and 21 Ships of War, of which six carry 72 Guns, and eight 60, each; the rest are lesser Rates. The Marshal de Boufflers is expected here, to assist at a great Council of War. 'Tis reported our Army in Ilanders will be considerably augmented for the next Campaign, both with Horse and Foot. 4 Days ago the King gave out Commissions for raising 30 new Regiments of Horse and Foot. 'Tis advis'd from the Camp before Nice, that all the Batteries against the Castle could not be ready before the 5th of this Month; so that 't was not expected the Place could be taken before the 10th or 12th. 'Tis confirm'd from Alliance, that 30 full Companies of Grenadiers began their March the 30th Ult. for Rouffillon, and would be follow'd by the Regiments de la Reine, de Mailli, and de Lunoi. The Duke of Vendome has by an Express desir'd the King's Leave to come to Court for 24 Hours only, to inform his Majesty by Word of Mouth of a certain Affair of very great Importance that he does not think proper to trust in Letters. The 5th at Night the Major of the Regiment de la Fayette arriv'd at Court, with an Account that the Garrison of Montmeillon had offer'd to surrender in Case they were not succour'd with Men and Provisions by the 30th of this Month, on Condition to be conducted to Turin with their Arms and Baggage and 6 Pieces of Cannon. Yesterday that Major was sent back with the King's Answer, importing, that if the Garrison did not surrender on the said Condition of being conducted to Turin, within 24 Hours after the Major's Return, they should afterwards be receiv'd on no other Terms than as Prisoners of War.

Hague, December 11. The 9th M. Dops arriv'd here, as did M. Henkelom some Days before, and M. Hompesch is expect'd, to assist at the Conferences and Councils of War that are to be held when the Duke of Marlborough is come hither. The Elector Palatin is actually redressing the Grievances of his Protestant Subjects: There is Ground to believe his Electoral Highness was persuaded to it by the Duke of Marlborough, in the Interview that was between them, in his Grace's Passage by Dusseldorf to Vienna. The Treaty for 4000 Men of that Elector's Troops to serve in Italy, is not concluded; but is so far advanced, that as soon as the Duke of Marlborough arrives it will be settled, so that those Troops may begin their March in a few Weeks to arrive in Prince Eugene's Army in March. General Fagel who arriv'd in Rear-Admiral Vander Dussen's Squadron from Lisbon, is come in here. That General, who was always esteemed able and honest, does not trouble himself to say any thing in Justification of his Conduct in Portugal, more than that the Army were Witnells of all his Actions, and that they all know the Faults of another Person are falsely imputed to him. M. Vander Dussen brought home 7 Ships; Admiral Almonde is expect'd with 3 others, but will return to the Mediterranean with a Squadron that is fitting out with all Expedition. When the Duke of Marlborough has conferr'd with the States, it will be known whether any Land-Forces will be sent with that Squadron.

At the Theatre Royal, in Drury-Lane, this present Thursday, being the 6th of December, will be presented a new Tragedy, (never Acted but Thrice) call'd, Perolla and Isadora. In which (at the Desire of several Persons of Quality) will perform'd, several Entertainments of Dancing, by Monsieur du Ruel and Mrs. du Ruel; also by Mrs. Evans, a Scholer taught by Monsieur Siris.

At the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Thursday, being the 6th of December, will be presented the last new Tragedy call'd Ulysses, with the Epilogue.

These Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Lintott Next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

To Morrow will be publish'd,

The Memoirs of that great Favorite, Cardinal Woolsey; with Remarks on his Rise and Fall; and other secret Transactions of his Ministry in Church and State. Together with a Memorial presented to Queen Elizabeth, by William Cecil, Lord Burleigh, then Lord High-Treasurer of England, to prevent Her Majesty's being Engrossed by any particular Favourite. Printed and are to be sold by B. Bragg, at the Blew-Ball in Ave-mary-lane, 1706.

A very good House with Stables, Gardens, Orchards well planted, and other Conveniences; also about 20 Acres or Ground belonging to it, lying at Leth-Head near Epsom in Surrey: Together with the Farm of Lath-hill in Ockley Parish in Surrey, are to be sold. Enquire of Mr. Close at Farnival's-Inn.

To Morrow being Thursday, the 6th Instant, at the Marine Coffee-house in Birch-lane Cornhill, will begin to be Sold by Auction a curious Collection of Books, Prints and Drawings, contain'd in the Libraries of R. Sharp and W. Sympton Gent. lately deceas'd; consisting of the most scarce and valuable Theological, Historical, Philosophical, Mathematical, Physical and Anatomical Authors, in Greek, Latin, Italian, French and English, all neatly Bound, and to the generality Gift on the Back. Catalogues deliver'd Gratis by Mr. King in Westminster-hall, Mr. Barnes in the Pall-Mall, Mr. Smith at the Rose-Hack in Fleet-street, Mr. Hardy against Grays-Inn Holbourn, Mr. Parkhurst in Cheap-side, Mr. Burroughs in Cornhill, and at the Place or Sale.

This Day is Publish'd,

The Northern Tals, or, The Nest of Fools. A Comedy. As it is now Acted by Her Majesty's Servants at the Theatre Royal in Drury-lane. With Prologue, Epilogue, and New Songs. By Richard Brome, Gent. Printed for James Round, at Seneca's Head in Exchange-Alley, Cornhill.

The following Days will be Publish'd,

The Preacher; or, The Second Part. A Discourse shewing, 1. What particular Doctrines ought to be preached by the Ministers of the Gospel. 2. That these Doctrines are generally neglected or (which is most usual) preached against. 3. What are the Causes of this Neglect and Opposition. 4. What are the dreadful Consequences hereof. With continued Advice to Students in Divinity, and to young Preachers. To which is annexed the Hearer, a Discourse shewing what are the Qualifications required in those Persons who would receive Benefit and Advantage by the Word preached. By John Edwards D.D. Printed for J. Robinson, J. Lawrence, and J. Wyat.

A Companion to the Altar: Shewing the Nature and Necessity of a Sacramental preparation, in order to our worthy receiving the Holy Communion: Wherein those Errors and Scruples about eating and drinking unworthily, and of incurring our own Damnation thereby, are proved groundless and unwarrantable. Unto which is added Prayers and Meditations preparative to a Sacramental Preparation, according to what the Church of England requires from her Communicants. The 4th Edition, with Additions. Printed for Edm. Parker, at the Bible and Crown in Lombard-street, near Stocks-market. Price Bound 6 d. or Stitch 4 d. (or 25 s. per Hundred.) This same Book is bound up with the Common-Prayers: And is to be had at the Place abovesaid. As is all sorts of the best Bibles and Common-Prayer, &c.

No withstanding divers Plaisters, &c. are publish'd, pretending a Cure for Corns, which are generally made to imitate that noble and effectual Plaister (publish'd by the first Author) which not only presently removeth the Anguish thereof, but likewise deadneth them to the root, infensibly and safely, being distinguish'd with a Seal, having this Motto, Art finds means. To be had only of Mr. Scampton at the Angel in Cornhill over against the Mermaid Tavern, at Mr. Osborn's at the Rose and Crown under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at Mr. Girard's at the three Flower-de-Luces near Northumberland-House in the Strand; Toy-shops at 1 s. per Box, seal'd up with Directions.

Ung. Aira. Or an Incomparable Ointment, for all manner of Aches and Pains, new or old, in the Limbs, Joints, and Nerves, or whatsoever cause, Pains in the Neck, Shoulders, Arms, Back, Loins, Hips, Thighs, Knees, Ancles and Feet: Lame and benighted Members, Palsie, Contractures, Gramp, &c. It cures to a Wonder, after a Hundred other things have prov'd unsuccessful, nor does the Grief return any more from the old Cause. Sold at the Fruit-shop, joining to the Conduit in Stocks-Market, and at the Glover's Shop in Ludgate, joining to Ludgate Church. Price 1 s. 6 d.

ADVERTISEMENT.

The Church Catechism explain'd by a Paraphrase, and confirm'd by Proofs from the Holy Scripture: To which is added a Table of Questions, to be answer'd from the Catechism, Paraphrases and Proofs. With prayers for ordinary Occasions collected from the common Prayer and Catechism: By James Talbot D. D. Rector of Spofforth in Yorkshire and Chaplain to his Grace the Duke of Somerset: Printed for A. and J. Churchill at the black Swan in Peter-Norfolk-Row, and Francis Hildyard Bookseller in York.

The Art of English Poetry: Containing I. Rules for making Verses. II. A Dictionary for Rhymes. III. A Collection of the most Natural, Agreeable, and Sublime Thoughts, &c. that are to be found in the best English Poets. By Edward Bysshe Gent. The Second Edition, Corrected and Improved. Printed for Sam. Buckley: And Sold by Dan. Midwinter at the Rose and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.

A Review of the Danger of the Church, occasion'd by the Memorial of the Church of England. The 2d. Edition. Printed for and Sold by the Booksellers of Loudon and Westminster.